SOUL SURVIVOR 2010 WEEK B

Wednesday 11th August – Monday 16th August

Maybe you've been before and know how great it is, or perhaps you've heard from others about how awesome this event is. Now is your chance to see for yourself. re:generation is planning to take a party of people to Soul Survivor 2010 at the Bath & West Showground, Shepton Mallet, so don't miss out!

You don't have to be a Christian to come or a follower of any particular denomination. Everyone is welcome. The programme of events, seminars and talks will be covering issues dealing with relationships, leadership, student life, career, ethics, poverty, justice, theology, community.... you name it, it'll be in the programme.

One of the things we like to spend time doing at Soul Survivor is having fun with each other! There are loads of cafes so you can relax and catch up with friends, Mr Boogies pumps out tunes for the disco divas, the gigs venue plays host to great bands every night, the sports field is always busy with a tournament or two, there are films, an art gallery, performing arts, workshops and all this on top of two main meetings a day and around 80 seminars to chose from over the five days!

Come to Soul Survivor to deepen your relationship with God and to have a good time with your mates. Not just so that you have a good break during the summer, but so that you are equipped to love and serve God wherever you are and whatever you do, every day throughout the year and throughout your life.

This event takes place from Wednesday 11th August – Monday 16th August
We will depart for Soul Survivor from re:generation at approximately 10:00am. You will be camping under canvas with thousands of other young adults to worship together, enjoy teaching, ministry, cafes, seminars, gigs and dance venues – all designed to help you move on in your relationship with Jesus. To find out more check out their website - www.soulsurvivor.com/uk
